

Overview of Sessional Academic Learning and Teaching (SALT)

UNSW Sessional Academic Staff Teachers who are employed on a casual or contract or sessional basis including lecturers, tutors, conjoints, clinical supervisors, facilitators, moderators, markers and demonstrators

Objectives:

- sharing teaching strategies
- sharing updates on policies and procedures
- providing opportunities to connect with others
- communicating insight and advice
- exchanging professional and industry experience

SALT community ➤ A place for sessional academics to connect – join our conversation

SALT program ➤ A UNSW-wide online self-paced professional development program for sessional academics, currently being developed by the EF Sessional Staff CoP – available late 2020

Welcome to SALT
Welcome to UNSW's professional development and support program for sessional academic learning and teaching
Module 1 - Inspired Learning
Module 2 - Students as Partners
Module 3 - Feedback and Dialogue
Module 4 - Being Digital
Module 5 - Communities
SALT community - staying connected
SALT communications - staying up to date

If you would like to learn more about the Sessional Staff CoP, please click here.